JUSTICE

We believe that justice is about what is right and fair. It means that people have equal access to opportunities and aren't treated differently because of the color of their skin, or where they were born. Justice is about interrogating our unfair systems, correcting them, and putting measures in place to ensure they are fair for all. We know that by making our community diverse, equitable, and inclusive, we are getting closer to a society that is just for everyone.

JEDI

JUSTICE, EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

UNIVERSITY of MARYLAND
School of Social Work

ssw.umaryland.edu/dao